Three Incumbents, One New Candidate File For Election To City Council

With the next City of Cameron election scheduled for the first Tuesday in April, April 2, the three incumbents of city council office up for re-election have filed their candidacy.

They are Grady Stidham, Clifford Thompson and Lincoln Mondrik, all of whom hold Post Numbers three, four and five on the council respectively. Hayden Lawrence has also filed for candidacy of Post Number four in opposition to Thompson.

These men have filed their intent to run for these specified posts and paid the candidate's filing fee which amounts to $10. Funds received from these total fees collected are to be used to pay the cost of holding the election while the city ordinance providing for the fee explains that any of these funds in excess to the amount of the actual cost of the election is to be returned to the candidates.

Councilmen Stidham and Mondrik and Candidate Lawrence filed for their posts at the same time in City Hall last Friday afternoon. Councilman Thompson filed for his candidacy Monday of this week.

Parties interested in filing for candidacy in the forthcoming election have until 30-days prior the election which to file their intent.

Local Jaycee Member Elected Vice-President Of State Group

Milton Brown and Richard Williams, both of Cameron, attended the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce Tri-Regional Convention in Mineral Wells Saturday and Sunday, February 9-10.

Brown, who is currently a state director of the Jaycees, was elected the vice president of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce and will represent Region 16. This region includes 12 clubs in this area of the state including those at Cameron, Waco, Temple, Killen and Groesbeck.

Williams attended the convention as representative of the local Jaycees. He is president of the Cameron club.

On Thursday, February 7, State

HIGHTOWER

Vice President Douglas Guthrie, Jr., and his wife, Bettye, of Waco and F. E. (Red) Hightower, president of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce, were the guests of the Cameron Jaycees at the Cameron Country Club.

The two state Junior Chamber of Commerce officers stopped in Cameron enroute to Killen where they were to assist Thursday night in organization of a Jaycee chapter there.

Dr. Guthrie has been in the Jaycees for five years and served as his local club's secretary-treasurer and as Christmas Activities Chairman and also as the state Christmas Activities Chairman.

Hightower is a native Texan and public relations director for the General Telephone Company of the Southwest. He began with the Junior Chamber of Commerce in 1949 when he joined the Dallas Jaycees where he served on several committees and as general chairman on the board of directors.

He received a first place state award when he served as director of public relations and a third place national award while serving as director of trade promotion.

Marak CYO Team In Second Place

Marak Catholic Youth Organization took part in the volleyball tournaments played recently at Dime Box, Bryan and Cameron.

Marak won against Frenstat, Bryan, Cyclone, Bremond and Cameron and lost to Dime Box on January 13. The Marak team is now in second place for the title.

At a monthly meeting held Wednesday, February 6, the delegates who recently attended the National Catholic Youth Council Convention in Temple gave reports on the variety of subjects discussed at this convention.

Plans were furthered for a public entertainment, the date to be announced later.

The Wee Hours By Your Police Reporter

As is usual on Sunday nights, the last one was rather dull in Cameron and especially so at the Cameron City Hall police station.

Night Chief Brandenburg received a call from a lady announcing that upon her arrival home she had found a car in the garage. Going out to check on the incident, Brand was undetermined as to the seriousness of the call. What else was to be expected in a garage more than an auto?

However, upon arrival at the lady's address which was near the Dairy Queen, he found she was right and that someone else's vehicle was parked in the family garage. Crossing to the still-open Dairy Queen, he found a young girl much upset as her car, which she had parked in front, had vanished.

The girl's examination revealed the car in the strange garage as hers. Then it was learned that some of her friends as a joke had rolled the vehicle into the then vacant garage.

The American Heart Association is the only national voluntary organization exclusively concerned with the development of research, education and community heart programs to fight the heart diseases.

Council Meeting Called-Canceled

An unscheduled city council meeting called by Mayor Robert Weems for Thursday morning, February 7, and to which he had invited a number of local citizens in an effort to straighten out the possible miscount of votes in the Tuesday's meeting on acceptance of Chief Willie Dolan's resignation was called off.

However, Councilman Charles Brady and a number of invited citizens had failed to hear of the cancellation of the meeting. They in turn arrived at the city hall.

Those present went on to have a meeting which they proclaimed as a meeting of citizens. At this meeting, there were 20 persons present including five on the city's payroll. They appointed John S. (Bubba) Batte to serve as Chairman of the called meeting.

Chief Dolan explained to the group that he was both honored and proud of the number of Cameron citizens, who had revealed they were behind him and the police department and in favor of the law enforcement being provided by the department.

Councilman Brady said, following some questioning by several present as to the rights of a citizen to attend council meetings, that all such meetings are open to the public. There has been no closed meetings of the group since he has been on the council, he said. He further declared in relation to failure of Cameron citizens in attending council meetings, "That is exactly the thing where we are short now!"

Batte gave a relative consensus of the groups' opinions when he explained that not knowing Dolan, he could not say he was either for or against him as a man. However, he said he is for any law enforcement officer as long as they enforce the law fairly and without prejudice. Batte is a former law enforcement officer himself, having at one time served with the Texas Rangers.

The group adjourned after voting to attend the council meeting to be held at the city hall on February 19.

Mayor Weems later said he canceled the meeting upon learning a number of councilmen were unable to attend.

Chili Supper To Aid Minerva Youngsters

The slogan of the 1957 Heart Fund is "Help Your Heart Fund - Help Your Heart."

Tax Receipts Good Locally

Nina Wilkinson, tax collector for the Cameron Independent School District, said Tuesday that 93 and one-third percent of the school taxes as are on the 1956 tax roll had been collected as of February 1, 1957.

She further declared that delinquent tax notices will be mailed out to property owners immediately.

Meanwhile, City Secretary Wayne B. Wieser, who also serves as tax collector for the City of Cameron, reports that collection of city taxes are well above that of the previous year. However, he said delinquent notices will not be sent out for some time yet.

In regard to delinquent taxes, the same was the report received from the county tax collector's office on delinquent notices.

Yoemen Lose Two To University

Cameron Yoemen leading at the end of the first quarter by 13-12 dropped behind and lost the next to their last cage game of the season last Tuesday night to University High in Waco by 67-52.

It was a nip-and-tuck game from start to finish. The University thinly-clad in the final period began freezing the ball. Yoemen under the strain began fouling and the final whistle sounded with the Cameron boys still trailing.

Top scorers of the game were Fuqueron and Campbell of University with 22 and 19 points respectively. Yoemen high-point men were Gene Hillman and Bobby El-Hott with 15 points each.

In the preliminary game, the Yoemen's "B" squad lost their match 58-30. High Scorers of the game were Harbert, Alsop, Cawley and Geriand of University High School with 21, 12, 9 and 6 points respectively. Top talliers for the Yoemen were McKissack, Zarosky, Jekel, Folchinsky, Mraz and McDermott, all of whom accounted for 4 points each.

St. Anthony's P-TA Hear Dr. Shapiro

St. Anthony's P-TA held a regular meeting Tuesday, January 22 at 7:30 p.m. at the Parish Hall with 35 members present.

A report was given by the president on the new books purchased for the school.

Following the business session, the guest speaker for the evening was Dr. David Shapiro, member of the Cameron school board. His subject was "Are High School Standards too Low."

Dr. Shapiro pointed out it is right for a student to receive credits for a subject that really should be extra, curriculum, and the necessity of a student planning to enter college to have the basic requirements in Science and Math.

Father Duda talked to the parents on how important it is for them to know where their sons and daughters are at, who they are with and where they go. Parents should make more effort to do and plan to do things together as a family. Pray together and play together.

A social hour followed with the hostesses Mrs. Anton Anderle, Mrs. E. Hollis and Mrs. Barta serving refreshments of coffee and doughnuts.

Work Shop Set Soon At College Station

A home grounds improvement work shop will be held at College Station February 28 and March 1, 1957, under the direction of Miss Sadie Hatfield, homestead improvement specialist.

Anyone wishing to attend this meeting should contact the home demonstration agent, Mrs. Alice Hughes at Cameron by February 15 for further information.

William Caldwell In Antarctic Now

William W. Caldwell, seaman apprentice of the U. S. Navy and son of Mr. and Mrs. Berry C. Caldwell of Cameron, departed January 27 from McMurdo Sound, Antarctica, for Little America, aboard the seaplane tender USS Curtiss.

The Curtiss arrived at McMurdo Sound January 21 after clearing the ice pack which surrounds the Antarctic Continent. She transported scientists and relief winter-over personnel to the Antarctic to make earth science studies during the International Geophysical Year 1957-58.

She will return to civilization with the party of Navy men and scientists, who have spent the past winter on the Antarctic Continent.

The seaplane tender stopped at Port Lyttelton, New Zealand to pick up additional passengers and to replenish supplies before continuing on to the "White Continent."

Two Local Students Named On Honor List

Two students from Cameron at Wharton County Junior College were among the 65 students there, who were listed on the "B or Better" honor list for the last nine weeks of the fall semester.

Of the two, Annie Lee Williams of the college's public relations office, explained that Jimmy Rettig of Cameron was listed on the honor roll in spite of a rigid schedule of long hours of football and basketball practice and out-of-town games which took them from their classrooms.

The other Cameron student named on the honor list is Ann Wimberly.

Pleasure-Profit Group Hold Meet

The Pleasure and Profit Club met Thursday, January 24, at the home of Mrs. Herbert Nance, with 11 members present. Mrs. Wiley Loughmiller and Miss Mary Randolph were guests of the club.

Following the recitation of the "Collect for Club Women", a short business meeting was held.

Mrs. Roy Hensley, program chairman, gave a book review. The book reviewed by Mrs. Hensley was "Jubilee" by John Brick, a story of the life of a Union officer during the Civil War.

Mrs. David Shapiro will be hostess at the next meeting and Mrs. Charlie Burke will be the Program Chairman.

Dolan's Resignation To Stand, He Says

Police Chief Willie Dolan said late Tuesday, February 12, his resignation to the City Council of Cameron the previous Tuesday night will stand. He said he will remain on the job until a replacement reports for duty.

Dolan expressed his great gratitude to those that have been in favor of the type of law enforcement which he and his department have provided for Cameron. He says he believes this includes the far greatest part of the city's population.

As of Tuesday, the police chief said he could not reveal as of that time what his future plans will be.

Following advertisement by the City of Cameron for a chief to replace Dolan, two applications had been received by City Secretary Wayne Wieser as of closing of the city office Tuesday afternoon. These applications, Wieser said, were both from out-of-town persons. One was received from an applicant in Temple and the other from one in Lott.

However, Wieser stated further that he has received a number of calls from persons announcing intention of filing and seeking any specified qualifications which they should include in their applications.

P-TA Members See Educational Opportunity As Provided Here

Irwin R. Whittington Arrives In Korea

Army Pvt. Irwin R. Whittington, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Whittington of Cameron, recently arrived in Korea and is now a member of the 24th Infantry Division.

Whittington, assigned to Battery C of the division's 13th Field Artillery Battalion, entered the Army in March, 1955, and received basic training at Fort Chaffee, Arkansas. He was last stationed at Fort Hood.

The 20-year-old soldier attended Yoe High School.

More than 90 per cent of all heart disease is caused by hardening of the arteries, high blood pressure and rheumatic fever. Research, supported by the Texas Heart Fund, is seeking the causes, cures and preventions of these conditions.

Members of Cameron Public Schools' P-TA met in the Industrial Arts Building on Thursday, February 7, during which time stress was placed upon "Educational Opportunity Provided For Our Children."

Bob White, industrial arts teacher in Yoe High School, was in charge of the program. He talked with emphasis on the fact that only with actual experience do students learn to apply that which they are taught.

Four of the students in White's classes demonstrated use of the machines in the industrial arts classes and in only 30 minutes, they turned out a what-not shelf.

Members of the organization passed on a motion under which the P-TA here in Cameron will take over and operate a Teen-Age Canteen as the organization's money-making project.

Members and guests were served refreshments following the meeting.

Also during this meeting, comments were still being made on the meeting held on the first Thursday in January and at which Bob Nelson as guest speaker discussed, "We The People Believe In A Well-Rounded Education."

At that meeting, Nelson said there is a monster roaming the City of Cameron; the results of which could be attributed to the lack of a well-rounded education. He said as citizens we help with cancer, polio and community chest drives while our greatest enemy is not disease but the lack of a well-rounded education.

He emphasized the need of the home and church working together to form the first and second phases of such needed education while the schools should provide the third phase to complete a well-rounded education. He continued with the fact that a child must learn at home to get along with his or her family and neighbors and that finally, delinquency lurks without this well-rounded education.

Stephen Pond And Family Leave Honolulu Enroute For United States

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pond of Cameron, Route 2, have received word that their son, Stephen and his wife and son, David, left Honolulu on February 2 and flew to San Diego, California, where he will go to Navy training school for eight weeks, before coming home for a 30 day leave.

Stephen has been stationed in Hawaii for the past two years. David was born there May 12, 1955. Mrs. Pond flew to Hawaii at that time for a visit with them.

After his leave Stephen will leave for Adak, Alaska, and will be stationed there for the next year. His family will follow him later.

Stephen attended Yoe High School. He joined the Navy in 1950 and was stationed in Japan during the Korean war, and was there until 1953 where he was stationed in Washington, D. C. until he left for Hawaii. He is a Communication Technician 1-C and is now studying to take exams for Chief Petty officer. Stephen plans on making the Navy his career.

P-TA Members Meet At Marak

Marak P-TA held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday, January 9. The meeting was opened with a prayer led by the President Mrs. Theo Mikulec. Before business got underway, "Praise to our School", composed by Mrs. August Hubnik, was sung by everyone. It was adopted as their official song.

Mrs. Frank Mikulec was appointed to investigate the possibility of getting someone to give first Aid instructions, as all the members are very much interested in first aid.

Several members plan to attend the Milam-Lee Bi-County Council meet, which will be held in Buckholts, January 24.

A very attractive yearbook was written up by the president. It will be displayed at the spring conference in Rockdale along with the other yearbooks.

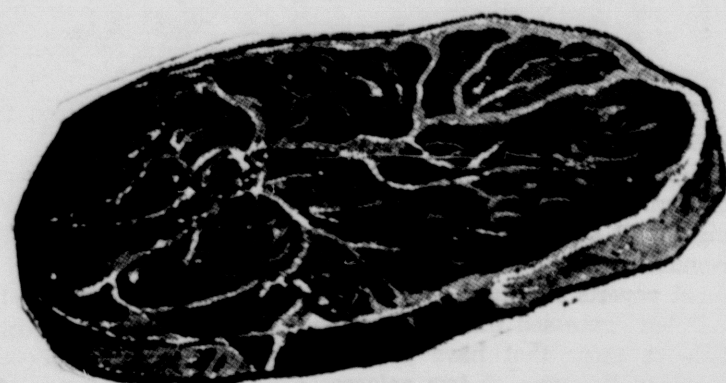

Before the meeting adjourned, Elizabeth Hubnik thanked the members in the behalf of Mrs. Lott's pupils for the pretty clock furnished for their room.

Worship together this week

We are well blessed. The doors of our churches and synagogues are wide open... waiting for us to enter. Set aside a time each week... a time apart from the "busyness" of living. You'll find more joy in each day, if you give some time each week to worship.

And the Wolf family here—will you just look at those boys! They're feeling very grown-up and proud as punch, going to a Service with Mom and Dad.

Here's Dave Judson and Bill Miller. Good friends for a good many years now. They hardly ever "talk" religion—they just always find time to get to Services each week.

Ever been a stranger in any town? Then you've known loneliness. And you know how comforting it is to come upon a church or synagogue... where the doors are always wide open to everyone.

Catholic Youths Hold Meeting

Regular Cameron Catholic Youth Organization meeting was held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, February 6, at the Simon-George Memorial Hall.

President Paul Hoelscher, presided over the meeting at which 45 members and one guest, W. C. Kolinek, of Temple were present.

Plans were made on a Kolach sale to be held on Saturday, February 16. Also planned was a skating party at Temple for Monday, February 18.

Following a report given about the C.Y.O. convention held in Temple recently, discussion was held concerning the district meeting to be held at St. Joseph's Parish in Bryan on Sunday, February 24. A dance sponsored by the Cameron C.Y.O. was discussed and planned for later in February.

Rev. Alfred Kallus closed the meeting with a prayer.

Funds Still Rising For 1957 MOD Drive

Employees of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Cameron were receiving high praise from officials of the Milam County March of Dimes early this week for their donation as a group which amounted to $50.26.

Bell personnel here during the campaign brought in refreshments daily for their regular coffee breaks. Rather than going out for such refreshments during this period, they consumed those supplied on the job and which consisted of pies, cakes, chili, cookies, salads and coffee. Tehri donation for the MOD was the money which they paid for their own refreshments.

All departments of the company at Cameron assisted in this project to raise funds with which to fight one of the nation's most dreaded diseases.

At the same time, MOD officials with Max McClaren as spokesman were also well pleased with the work done toward forwarding the drive by teen-agers of Rockdale. The youths of Rockdale raised a total of $128.60 on Saturday, February 2.

They collected $116.82 of this amount during the day in fines which they assessed against citizens of Rockdale during the hours which they served as members of the city's police and fire departments.

There were 25 youths participating in the drive on February 2 which was also recognized at Rotary Youth Day in Rockdale. Balance of the $128.60 was raised through the sales of peanuts.

Then on Monday of last week, members of Rockdale Boy Scout Troops sold peanuts on the streets and in the stores of Rockdale. Total proceeds on this sales promotion will go to the MOD, McClaren said, but explained that as of earlier in the week no figure was available as to the exact amount raised on the Monday activity.

Subject To Milam Draft Age Men

The local board inducted a total of thirty-seven men during the year 1956 with February and April being the only months in the year during which no men were sent to the induction station.

There were a total of 28 volunteers for induction during 1956 and a total of 174 registrations. The records show a total of 3,243 registrants as of the end of 1956, a total of 30 examined and acceptable classified I-A, 394 I-A not examined and 240 men who have not yet been classified.

Those men who are discharged with less than one year active duty do not qualify for IV-A classification, unless discharge was for convenience of the government, then the requirement is six months. However, men with more than 6 months, but less than 12 months, active duty, regardless of reason for discharge, are currently being postponed for preinduction physical examination and reinduction, in line with current directives.

Frequently, the board receives correspondence from an individual, or from other sources, about an individual who is not a registrant. When such correspondence is received, the board immediately corresponds with such non-registrant in an effort to locate his board of registration and if not registered, to request that he do so at once.

Many times these individuals reply only after the board has followed up the original letter two or three times and many times, the board never receives a reply. Section 12 of the Universal Military Training and Service Act, as amended, provides penalties for refusal to furnish information considered necessary in the administration of the Act and failure on the part of such individuals to respond will leave the board no alternative other than to report them to the U. S. Attorney for appropriate action.

Skiing At South Pole

There's going to be skiing in a big way at the South Pole. Four Navy Jet-equipped P2V-7 NEPTUNE patrol bombers are being fitted with Bunyan-size skis for duty in the Antarctic.

Provisions are being made for the wheels to remain stationary while the skis can move up or down, thus permitting landings on either skis or wheels.

Former Cameron Youth Gains Appointment To West Point

Charles (Chuck) Acrey, native of Cameron and son of Rev. and Mrs. Chauncey Acrey of San Antonio, has received an appointment to West Point Military Academy from Congressman Paul J. Kilday.

He has been appointed as the principal for admission to the Academy in the June, 1957, class. Rev. Acrey in notifying of his son's appointment to West Point explained that his son was born in Cameron during the 12 years he and Mrs. Acrey spent here.

Rev. Acrey spent those 12 years as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Cameron. He came originally to Cameron from the Seminary and the local church was his first pastorate for which reason, he explains that he still has deep roots in Cameron and Milam County.

The former pastor of the local Presbyterian Church wrote, "It was my privilege to be the pastor of Billy Gillis, deceased son of Mrs. Graham Gillis, who lost his life in the last World War.

"Billy as you know was appointed to the United States Military Academy by the congressman of that district and finished the course at West Point. I do not know whether another Cameron boy has been honored with such an appointment since Gillis' appointment. Naturally I have felt close to that family.

"I had no idea that I would have a son, who would someday be accorded the same honor. Mrs. Acrey and I are very proud to tell our friends in that area of his appointment to West Point."

Rev. Acrey's last visit to Cameron was three years ago at which time he attended a Lady's Coe High School will present a Night of the local Lion's Club.

Miss Rosalie Matyastik was maid of honor and Thomas Raymond, Jr., brother of the bride, was best man.

This agriculture organization has grown from a handful of members to a membership of over 1100 at the close of their fiscal year October 31, 1956. In the spring of 1947 a group of farmers and ranchers met in the county agricultural agent's office and elected H. H. Chamberlain as temporary chairman of the group whose plans were to work for organizing a Farm Bureau in Milam County.

The total number of men who attended this first meeting and signed as members were 29. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau was in attendance at this meeting. In January 1948 the Farm Bureau was organized in Milam County with S. W. McClaren, Jr., president; Ed Senkel, first vice president; E. B. Yager, second vice president and Mrs. Mabel Elrod (now deceased) as secretary treasurer.

A part time office was opened in Cameron. Mrs. Elrod worked in the office and later was followed by Mrs. M. H. Wimberly. McClaren served as county president until the fall of 1950 when he was elected a member of the Board of Directors of the Texas Farm Bureau as Director of District 8, a position he still holds.

McClaren resigned from the office of county president early in 1951 and Dennis Klein of Burlington, Texas was elected to fill the unexpired term. Klein was reelected for the years 1952 and 1953. Other officers serving were John A. Smith, first vice president, Robert Glenn, second vice president and Mrs. M. H. Wimberly, secretary treasurer.

At the county convention in October, 1953, John A. Smith was elected President, and served until November 1956.

In July, 1951, Wm. F. Arthur joined the organization as service agent, and still holds this position with the organization. In December, 1952, Miss Lenora A. Bickett was employed as office secretary, a position she now holds along with duties as the county secretary and treasurer for the organization.

Other officers serving with Smith were Robert Jungmann, first vice president, and Charles Bailey, second vice president.

In December, 1952, the total membership was 558 and at the close of the business for October 1956, it had grown to the figure of 1104. At the same time, O. G. Tumlinson was elected to serve as president, Robert Jungmann re-elected as first vice president and Mrs. Bernice Charles as second vice president.

The following are members of the board of directors. They are V. L. Angell, Mrs. Charles Bailey, W. A. Conn, J. D. Crook, Charlie Duncan, Herbert Heine, Arthur Inge, Charlie Lucko, Ed Miller, F. H. Scarborough, John A. Smith, John Slovak, Everett Shelton, J. D. Woolverton, and Joe F. Zajicek.

LONE STAR BREWERY WINS GOLD AWARD...Floyd O. Schneider (r) Vice President in charge of sales shows President Harry Jersig the Gold Award Certificate awarded to Lone Star by the Brewers Association of America. The award, the first ever earned by a Texas Brewery, certifies Lone Star Beer to be as fine as any beer brewed in the world.

Lone Star Beer Earns Top Award

The Brewers' Association of America, the largest association of brewers in the world, announced today through their secretary, William M. O'Shea, that the coveted Gold Award, recognized as the highest mark of excellence in the brewing industry, has been awarded to the Lone Star Brewing Company of San Antonio, Texas. This is the first such award to ever be made to a Texas brewery.

According to O'Shea, the Gold Award of the Brewers' Association of America can be earned only by brewers who have their product certified by the laboratory of the Brewers' Association as meeting every high standard of excellence and is as fine as any beer brewed in the world. In addition to the certification of excellence by the Association Laboratory, Lone Star is also continuously tested by two other independent laboratories, as well as the ultra modern laboratory on the brewery property.

Other standards which must be met in order to qualify for the Association Award are a continuing and increasing acceptance of the product by the consumers in their sales markets. Also, the brewery winning the award must participate in all phases of an educational program designed to improve the brewing industry. Lone Star's acceptance in the state of Texas has been the most notable in the history of the brewing industry with an increase in sales of 2200 percent in the past ten years.

The Gold Award for excellence was presented to Floyd Schneider, Vice President in charge of sales, for the Lone Star Brewing Company at the recent meeting of the Brewers' Association of America in Chicago.

Planning And The Future . . .

Cameron's planning commission has been moving rather slowly during the 10 months the city has been operating under the new charter. Even with the slow and careful study being made by the commission, they will meet much opposition once they complete their work.

Currently being read by the city council is an ordinance on city planning covering such matters as street layouts and plans for subdivisions within the city limits. Not too much opposition is expected from this portion of the commission's plan to better the future of Cameron.

However, commission members are studying ordinances from other cities and communities which already have in operation rulings on city zoning and building codes. Richard Moseley, chairman of the planning board, says an ordinance on zoning is forthcoming in the very near future and another on a building code in a very short time thereafter.

On both of these they will meet opposition because some inconvenience will be caused to certain persons. Such is always the case although in the final results those being inconvenienced are the ones receiving the greatest benefits in the long run. All will be aided greatly whether they are property owners or just the laboring persons in the city.

No city can prosper nor improve itself unless it first plans for prosperity, growth and improvements. No citizen within the city is going to build a residence in which to place their family should there be the slightest possibility for a hovel or factory which casts off odors be allowed to build on the adjoining lots. Such is now the case. Such is the reason more people continue holding off before building residences of $10,000 to unlimited costs in even our better residential areas today.

Industries which are attracted to the city for potential building are not going to build unless they are permitted to build in an industrial zone. Only in such zones can they acquire needed rail sidings, temporary but essential storage warehouses that can only be established if there is enough demands from several such industries, have streets capable to handle transportation conveyances, labor supply, utility lines set up for heavy production rather than for mere houses and numerous other causes.

Take any prosperous town in the nation and no element of population in that city is held down because of the whims of even the majority of the citizens. Planning boards in such growing municipalities look into the future for means of opening the way for a better city not a more privileged group.

City Council, Wake Up . . .

Are members of our city council asleep on their posteriors?

If they are, we suggest they wake up! But in any case, they should adopt a habit of thinking before they act. During the last two meetings of the council and in the periods before and after, it seems at least some of the council are not doing such.

First of all, in the first of the two last meetings the council voted to abolish candidate filing fees, their salaries and to cut that of Mayor Robert Weems. The very next meeting on a motion and the vote of three of the members, they changed their minds and reconsidered so the former filing fee and salaries will remain the same. Were these members asleep or not thinking at the previous meeting?

In this last meeting, on approval of the majority of the governing body the resignation of Police Chief Willie Dolan was accepted. Before noon the following day, Mayor Weems said his vote was misunderstood as he considered his vote as being for the chief to stay on the job and that such was the decision of the council.

However, was he asleep or just not thinking as the council during the meeting went on to set the date to be placed in the advertisement seeking applications for a new chief and votes taken on whether or not Assistant William H. Brandenburg should be promoted to the top post.

Right or wrong, we believe everyone should obey the rulings set forth by our city council. At the same time, we are against such rulings being passed within two weeks being reversed. Under such procedure, we can only assume that councilmen involved are carrying on city affairs in a "wishy-washy" manner.

Emotions are valuable but civilization teaches one self-control.

Advertising is good for business; it's even good for our business.

No matter what kind of organization you can think of, somebody will join it.

The only people, who succumb to hard work, are those who kill themselves dodging it.

Duval "Refugees" Cut Population By 43 Per Cent in Fifteen Years

By--FREDERICK HODGSON

SAN DIEGO, TEX.—In Duval County there has existed "an almost indestructible machine of theft, secrecy and terror." So states John Ben Shepperd, Attorney General of Texas.

If Shepperd be right it is a wonder that Duvalans flee to freedom through the Mesquite Curtain?

Between 1940 and 1955, inclusive, Duval County lost 43 per cent of her population.

In 1940 there were 20,565 people living in the County according to the U. S. Census.

By 1950 the population had dropped officially to 15,563.

By 1955 the population had dropped to an estimated 12,000, give or take a hundred or so either way.

This figure is based on a usually accurate barometer, on the school population which varies directly as the total population.

In 1950 there were 5,077 children attending public schools in Duval. By 1955 the number of children in school had dropped to 4,150, a loss of 927 in five years. The 1940 figure was 6,213.

All of the above figures are taken from the authoritative Texas Almanac—except the per centages.

Seven other Texas counties touch on the borders of Duval. These are Brooks, Jim Hogg, Jim Wells, La Salle, Live Oak, Webb and McMullen.

All but two of these counties show population increases for the same period; the exceptions are Live Oak and tiny McMullen—and their losses are small.

In sharp contrast Brooks gained 44.5 per cent; Jim Wells, 38.3 per cent and Webb gained 22.3 per cent. These figures are for 1940-50. School population jumped in these three counties between 1950 and 1955, indicating a proportionate population gain.

Ask a Parr proponent to explain the exodus from Duval and he has a ready answer, the long drought and the trend to the big cities.

It isn't explained how the drought affects Duval more than her seven neighbors.

Nor what big cities exist in those seven counties. The only "big city" is Webb's Laredo with an estimated 59,000 people.

There can be but one answer for the Duval exodus. Too many people found life there unpleasant, unbearable, unsafe or unprofitable. So they packed up their families and vanished.

I was sitting in a restaurant in Jourdanton, the Atascosa county town, when a man came over and wanted to know what was going on at the courthouse. He thought I was a lawyer, and visiting lawyers are celebrities in Jourdanton.

I told him that Judge Barrow was hearing a case having to do with Parr's 55,711-acre Dobie Ranch.

"Use'ta live in San Diego one't," the man said.

I asked him why he left the place.

"Couldn't raise my kids there proper," he said. "I got beatened up one't and we didn't want our kids to see their daddy get beatened up."

When I pulled out my note book to jot down his name the man added this: "Nope, Nope, I got a married sister still livin' there."

The list of people forced to leave Duval County for one reason or another, frightened out or ordered out, is as long as your arm, people whose names are on the record.

Let's consider a speech by Ricardo Barton, wealthy Duval and Jim Wells rancher, former Parr stalwart and now a foe of the Machine.

It takes courage to face up to one's past and obey the dictates of conscience. Barton, over the protests of his fearful family, showed up at an anti-Parr election rally and made a speech. This, in part, is what he said:

"I've been with the Duke in stealing from the school kids... Sixteen years ago Parr ran my own brother out of the county... I could tell you a few things about an unsolved murder or two... I want you all to know the truth about the Possum (the Latin's nickname for Parr, El Tlacuache—the Possum) even if I have to go to prison for it."

The exodus is not only from Duval. People are deserting the Parr camp in droves.

Most important of the defections, of course, is the present District Judge C. Woodrow Laughlin, a former Parr man who was once unceremoniously tossed out of office by the Texas Supreme Court. Duval County Judge Dan Tobin is another. Yet another is Manuel Marroquin, now editor of the anti-Parr bi-lingual tabloid newspaper "New Duval."

Marroquin, the man described by Assistant Attorney General Sidney Chandross as having "more intestinal fortitude than any other man in the county," gives an interesting sidelight on the Duke of Duval—and it's by the sidelights, the little things, that we understand people. Here's Marroquin's story, taken directly from a tape recording:

"I started to sell milk in my store and George Parr came in. I said 'George, will you do me a favor, take a bottle of milk and go outside with it, let people see you with it?'"

"George said to me, he said 'Meme'—he always called me Meme, that's short for Manuel you know—he said 'Meme, you know I don't drink milk' and he started to go out."

"I said, 'George, I know you don't drink milk, but if people see you with my milk they'll buy it from me.'"

"He said, 'Sure, Meme, give me a bottle of milk.'"

"And I said, 'I won't charge you anything.' He put the money down anyway and I said 'If you want to throw the bottle away after the people see you with it, then throw it away. Just let the people see you with my milk and they'll buy my milk.'"

"He went out of my store and held up the bottle of milk and he waved it and before he got in his car he said everybody what fine milk I had. And he waved the bottle of milk out of the window of his car after he got in his car and drove off."

"For three days everybody in San Diego buys my milk. Everybody in San Diego's drinking milk, then... Wham! Nobody at all buys my milk. I had all my milk and it went bad. I lost plenty of money. You know what that blankety blank so and so did? His pistoleros found out they could make money with milk so George gave the milk business to a deputy sheriff."

If that isn't a whimsical switch on old-style Bossism I'd like to know what it is. If the men who bossed Chicago in the days of Al Capone ever hear of it they'll be doing a dervish act in their graves. Milk!

Later Marroquin opened a tortilla bakery. Parr put him out of business.

Marroquin today is one of the Duval emigres. The five members of the Marroquin family have helped swell the census of neighboring Jim Wells County. "Meme," with his Winchester always at the ready, lives just across the county line on Highway 44.

Take the case of another refugee, Jose Serna, brother of Donato Serna, now the Duval County auditor. Jose owned a cafe in San Diego and incurred the displeasure of the Boss. Here's how Donato tells the story:

"George Parr drove my brother out of the County, out of San Diego. Deputy sheriffs blocked the entrance to his place of business. They'd arrest customers who had one beer and charge them with drunken driving whether they owned automobiles or not. They didn't press any charges, just scared them so they wouldn't go in my brother's place any more."

"I went across the street with a loaded camera to take a picture for evidence and George Parr grabbed his pistol and ran across the street to me, cursing in Spanish. Tried to grab my camera."

Amaya (Manuel Amaya, then deputy sheriff and now chief of police in San Diego) hit my camera with the barrel of his gun.

"Amaya said 'You're both (Donato and Jose) under arrest. Get in that car.' We got in and I said 'All right, arrest me but don't hit me.' They took us to the courthouse. George put his gun in its holster and hit me hard on the head with a five-cell flashlight. I sat down on the jailer's bunk. He was beating me up when Amaya took the flashlight away from him. Amaya put the camera on the table and they tore it to pieces. Then George told us 'Get the hell out of here.' We went."

Donato Serna stayed in Duval to fight.

In Duval these days a man either fights for Parr or fights against him. The days of "inactive subversion" are over. In Duval it's physically impossible to sit on your hands and straddle the fence at one and the same time.

I first heard that term "inactive subversion" a few weeks ago in Austin as I sat and talked about Duval with John Ben Shepperd, who knows more about the county, probably, than any other person outside the immediate vicinity.

Shepperd's knowledge has grown out of his early, undercover visits to Duval back in 1953, when he waited in a dark ranch house to talk with anti-Parr citizens who he said came stealing out of the bushes in the dark after parking their cars a mile away. Sometimes, he tells, they changed cars two or three times on the way to the rendezvous to keep from being followed by Parr men.

Months of this undercover investigation gave Shepperd enough information to sustain a frontal attack on the stronghold of Parr.

When the Parr dictatorship was first battered down on Duval, consolidating itself into "an almost indestructible machine of theft, secrecy and terror," the people were ignorant, miserable, exploited and politically inexperienced. Perhaps they cannot be blamed for letting themselves get caught in the coils. Today they're still miserable, still exploited and the illiteracy rate is among the very highest in the State of Texas. But they've had political experience thrust upon them.

Quien sabe? Who knows, perhaps with upsurge of real democracy in the county that peratrophic population drop will be halted, even reversed.

Thanks to men like Serna, and Marroquin, and Shepperd and many, many others, Duval may yet come into its own.

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER BAFLED BY EXPERTS OPPOSITION TO DROUTH LEGISLATION THAT MIGHT NOT WORK

Editor's note: The Little River Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Little River has been doing some drouth-stricken thinking. If you want to call it that, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:

I was reading along in a news article out of Washington last night with my mind sort of idling when suddenly I went back over the same item because something in it had slipped up on me and shocked me awake.

There it was in the second paragraph. It was a statement by an agricultural expert who was opposing a drouth relief bill in Congress on the grounds that it "would create more problems than it would solve."

This brought my feet down off the chair they were propped on and set me to thinking hard.

This is one of the strangest reasons for opposing anything I ever heard of.

If people are going to stop passing bills or thinking up inventions or doing anything else just because they'll create more problems than they solve, we might as well call off Congress, close up the state legislatures, shut down the colleges, and outlaw the automobile.

Take the automobile, for example. In view of the fact more people have been killed in car wrecks than in all the wars we have ever fought, who is there to say the car hasn't created more problems than it's solved? But also who is there to say the car ought to be outlawed, right when most people haven't got their half paid for?

Or take Cameron. Anybody knows there are more problems on the piece of ground occupied by Cameron now than there were when it was still in cultivation. Parking problems, traffic problems, paved street problems, sewer problems, water main problems, fire problems, school problems, juvenile delinquency problems, tax problems... obviously the people who built Cameron created more problems than they solved, but I have an idea you'd be the last person who'd be in favor of abolishing the place.

You set up the standard that every move mankind makes has to solve more problems than it creates and modern civilization will come to a halt.

Drouth legislation may create more problems than it solves, but

Milam County Scouts 4-H Group Names Observe Anniversary Club Officers

Milam County Boy Scouts in conjunction with 10,000 scouts and leaders in the 10 counties composing the Heart O'Texas Council observed the 47th birthday anniversary of the organization.

Involved locally were all branches of the Boy Scouts of America including Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and members of the Eagle Scout posts.

Theme of the observance was "Onward for God and My Country," which is also the title of the current four-year scouting program. This program seeks to give every boy an opportunity to develop physical fitness, self-reliance, a sense of personal responsibility, a spirit of helping people, a willingness to share, an understanding of the government's democratic processes and a firm spiritual foundation.

Future meeting dates were set for every fourth Saturday of the month. The next meeting will be held February 23 at 9 a.m. in the agents office.

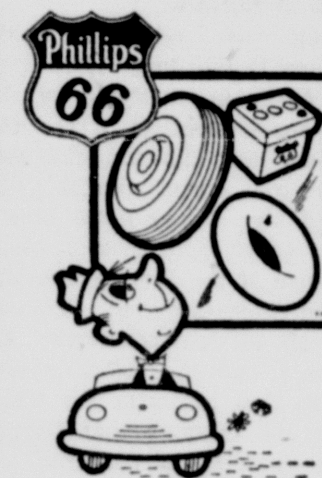

County and home demonstration agents met with a group of boys and girls on Saturday, January 26, to hold this meeting. Ten new members added their names to the roll.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

As explained by City Secretary Wayne Wieser, this cost to the city can be repaid in a very short time by cut in office hours required to carry out accounting procedure used and also in making way for a more efficient means in the collection of city taxes, reports, records and mailing of water and garbage bills. Miss Betty Raska of Wieser's office is shown above making initial entries of city records which under this new system can be filled in much smaller storage space and which will be many times more accessible.

NEW EQUIPMENT AND SUPPLIES to be utilized in the City Tax Office are above receiving the first entries by Miss Annetta Sheldner, clerk in the tax office. Ground Observer Posts Blanketing Milam Cty.

Ground Observer Corps, a vital part of Civil defense, is now being organized in Milam County, and throughout the gulf coast area.

The corps is the grass-roots element of the nation's air-defense system. Individually it is the man or woman, who scans the sky, looking and listening for a sign of approaching hostile aircraft. Collectively, it is hundreds of thousands of persons volunteering a part of their spare time to protect our nation from surprise enemy air attack.

Since the summer of 1952, 27 states along the other borders of the United States have been participating in the Ground Observer Corps 24 hours a day. The Ground Observer Corps is now being extended to all of the 48 states and is in operation throughout Canada and Alaska. Our present air defense radar system guards against a sneak air attack by high-flying bombers, but detection of low flying aircraft depends upon the civilian volunteers, men and women, boys and girls, of the Ground Observer Corps.

Sgt. R. E. Moore of the Houston Air Defense Filter Center stated that ground observer posts have been organized in Maysfield, Milano, San Gabriel, Sharp, Minerva, ALCOA Plant at Rockdale, Buckholts and Rockdale. Sgt. Moore also stated that posts are scheduled to be organized in Cameron and some of the other communities in Milam county in the very near future.

Some of the leaders in organizing these posts in each of these communities follow.

MAYSFIELD: Vaughn Thweatt, John H. McLerran and the local boy scout troop.

MILANO: John D. Yoakum, L. E. Love and the local boy scout troop and Mrs. Pearl Williams and members of the local Women's Home Demonstration Club.

SAN GABRIEL: James F. Guthrie, William H. Stigall and other citizens of San Gabriel.

SHARP: George Triggs, George Lamb and members of the local

P-TA Club and students of the local school.

MINERVA: Mrs. Paul Jenkins, Mrs. Sue McDaniell and members of the Community Club of Minerva.

ALCOA Plant: C. M. McManus and security guards of the Aluminum Company.

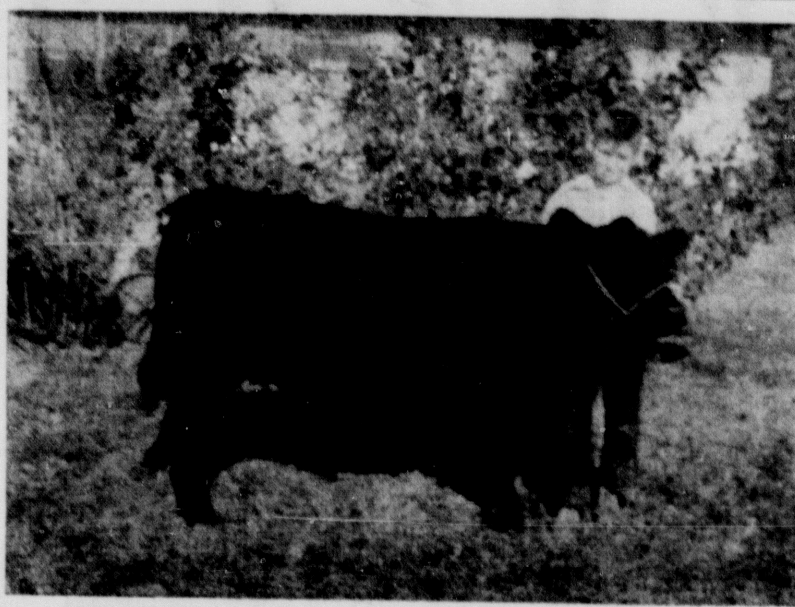

BUCKHOLTS: Adolph Gresak, Floyd Stark, Frank Tomasek and Mrs. Arledge and members of the P-TA Club and boys and girls of the Buckholts Schools.

Collier Pearson and H. M. Luckey aided in organizing the post in Rockdale and L. E. Rose, Jr., and J. T. Todd assisted in establishing the Gause post.

"These are but a few of the people that are doing a fine job throughout Milam County but they still need more help", Sgt. Moore said last Thursday.

For more information on how you can serve, contact any of the above named people in the different towns or write to S-Sgt. R. E. Moore, 1804 Anita Street, Bryan, Texas, or to the Houston Air Defense Filter Center, 6300 Bellaire Boulevard, Bellaire, Texas.

Mann Tells Need Of Conservation

Wayne Mann, work conservationist of the local Soil Conservation Service office, was guest speaker at the regular luncheon meeting of the Cameron Kiwanis Club held Thursday January 31, at the Magnolia House.

He described the great need of soil and water conservation in Milam County and especially the need for upstream dams now being planned for both the Elm and Brushy Creeks. Conservation practices as described by the SCS man work only when they follow one another in an orderly pattern.

Mann gave a pictorial example of one area in which conservation work changed the land from that of erosion to land growing fine crops of grasses. He explained the order in which practices were used on this land started with sod waterways and was followed with terraces and contour cultivation.

The speaker was introduced to the Kiwanians by Pat Kelley, who was in charge of the program.

H. Tomasek Enters Three Swine In Show

Penetration Check Made On Cobb Farm

A penetration check was made on the Calvin Cobb farm following the two week damp spell. Approximately two inches of rain fell and penetrated to a depth of 15 inches.

This check was made on a bedded field on which cotton was grown last year. There was no less from runoff.

Farm ponds have been constructed on Ervin Herrington and Alford Herrington farms in the Cego Community. These ponds were designed by and staked by personnel from the Temple Work Unit of Soil Conservation Service. They will furnish a year round supply of livestock water once there is enough rainfall to fill them.

Failure to observe manufacturer's directions when handling highly toxic insecticides and miticides is risky business, warn extension entomologists. Insecticide injury to man is most common through oral and respiratory intake or by skin absorption. The entomologists urge the use of special care when working with phosphorous compounds.

Heart diseases cause more deaths in the United States each year than all the other causes combined, according to U. S. government statistics quoted by the Texas Heart Fund.

dusts or sprays!

Plant seed treated with
THIMET®

Revolutionary new insecticide—applied by commercial seed treaters—grows into plant, makes cotton deadly to thrips, aphids, mites through first 6 weeks of growth.

Systemic action of Thimet gives plants "built-in" protection. You save the time, money and labor normally required for first six to seven weeks' spraying or dusting.

Protects all parts of all plants during critical early weeks. Ordinary sprays or dusts protect only parts of plants covered by insecticide. But because Thimet actually grows into the plant, it protects every leaf, every stem, right from the start. Plants actually kill insects before they can do damage.

Eliminates problem of timing sprays or dusts. No matter when thrips, spider mites and aphids strike, your cotton stays protected. Even when fields are too muddy for conventional spraying or dusting equipment.

Proved in 3 years of testing... 1 year of grower use. Thimet was developed by American Cyanamid after years of research and experimentation. It has been successfully tested by state and federal experiment stations throughout the south.

How Thimet® works. As plant sprouts from treated seed, Thimet is absorbed and sent to all parts of plant tissue. Entire plant becomes toxic to insects. After Thimet's job is done, it breaks down, leaves no harmful residues in cotton-fibre or seed.

TELEPHONE TALK

by C. L. Carson, Manager

- A Look Ahead -

This is the first opportunity I've had to talk with you this way this year, so I'd like to take time to look at 1957.

We at the telephone company are planning to make it a good year—even better than last year, when it comes to the speed, dependability, and value of your telephone service.

It's our feeling that our most important job is to give you the kind of telephone service you want and need—in 1957 and the years ahead. So if there's anything we can do to make your service more pleasant and helpful, please don't hesitate to call on us.

Three for Two's A Bargain

Cameron people made more out-of-town calls last year than in any previous year—a fact which speaks well of the value of our Long Distance service. A total of 102,435 calls were completed during 1956.

Many of you who made these calls realized big savings, too, by placing your calls station-to-station. That way, you saved up to one-third, because you can make three station-to-station calls for about the price of two person-to-person calls.

Here's an example of what I mean. You can make three station-to-station calls from here to Taylor for only $1.20 plus tax. Two person-to-person calls to the same city will cost $1.30 plus tax. That's using the bargain rates available every evening after six and all day Sunday.

This year, why not call station-to-station when you call Long Distance? You'll save money. And you'll save time, too, if you'll always call by number.

Kitchen Helpers

There's a lot of truth in saying, "The kitchen is the heart of the home." It's certainly true that a homemaker spends about as much time in the kitchen as in any other room in the house.

I guess that accounts for the popularity of some of the wonderful new "kitchen helpers," like dishwashers, waste disposals, and freezers. No wonder they're popular! Think of how much drudgery these conveniences save the homemaker.

There's another "kitchen helper" I'd like to mention that's growing in popularity, too. That's an additional telephone. Kitchen phones save time and steps for busy housewives, and make it easier to keep in touch with friends.

Additional telephones for any room in the house are low in cost—just $1.00 a month, plus tax and a small one-time installation charge. Just call the telephone business office.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Texas broiler producers may receive slightly higher prices for their birds during 1957 than was received during the last quarter of 1956 but extension poultry marketing specialists warn that supply and demand as well as other marketing factors will effect prices.

councilman on the Cameron City Council. He is running for the fifth position on the council which is the same as the one to which he was appointed to fulfill the unexpired term of Robert Weems when the later became mayor.

Mondrik was born and raised in Cameron. He is 45-years of age, married and has two sons in the U. S. Navy and a daughter attending North Texas State College at Denton. He has been in business here in Cameron for 10 years.

In announcing his candidacy for the office, he explained, "The way I feel about the councilmen's position is as follows.

"We, the councilmen, are servants of the city. The services we perform are necessary to the people of the city. They are necessary to the building of our city and to our state security.

"Clearly, we occupy a position of great public trust.

"We are also trustees for the spending of tax money of every taxpayer who has paid in money by taxation. It is our responsibility that the money be spent wisely.

"We should think it all-important therefore that we furnish the best service it is in our power to provide; a service of high value and steadily improving at a cost that will always be as low as possible and at the same time keep the city in good financial health.

"The council must attract and keep capable employees in its employment. They must have opportunity to advance with the advancement of the growth of the city.

"Finally, it seems to me that it always our duty to act for sound financing and wise spending.

"This is the way I understand the trust, which the citizens of Cameron have placed in us. It is a trust that deserves and will continue to receive the most painstaking care we can give it.

"Elected to the council, I will work with my fellow councilmen and the mayor for the betterment of the city's problems and welfare of the people."
